Is Change more important than Progress?

Support Continuity, Togetherness & Progress

In the last 4 years your association has achieved much more:

- Initiated IATO Training Programmes for over 1000 IATO member company's staff and managers.
- Reduction in service tax from 12% to 10% and luxury tax from 12.5% to 10% by the Delhi Government and 2% by the Karnataka Government.
- Visa-on-Arrival for select countries was introduced on the behest of IATO.
- Introduction of Grievance Cell to benefit Active and Allied members.

Help us improve the in-bound industry and grow YOUR business

Rajesh Mudgill
For Sr. Vice President

IATO is the main voice of the industry, which is absolutely transparent and values all its big and small members alike, which should be further strengthened.

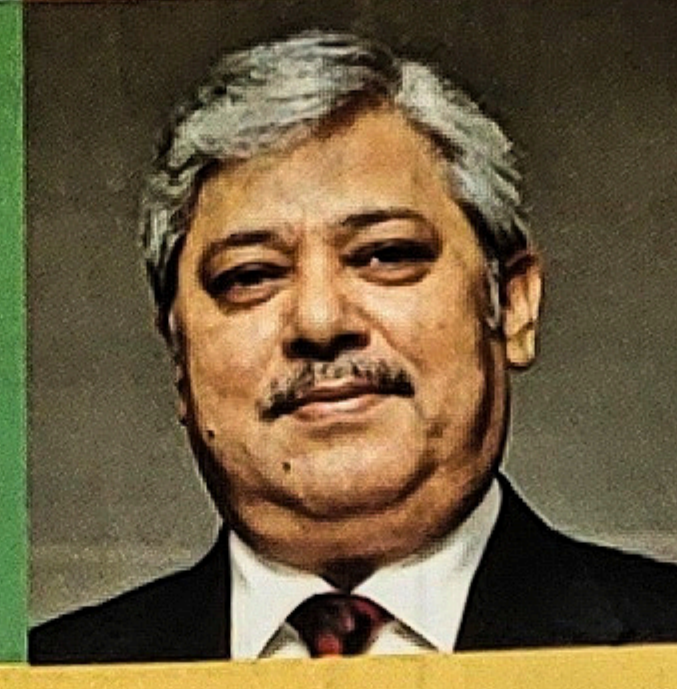

Pronab Sarkar
For Vice President

I am a worker and a team player, who wants to ensure that no stone is left unturned to promote the interests of all our members.

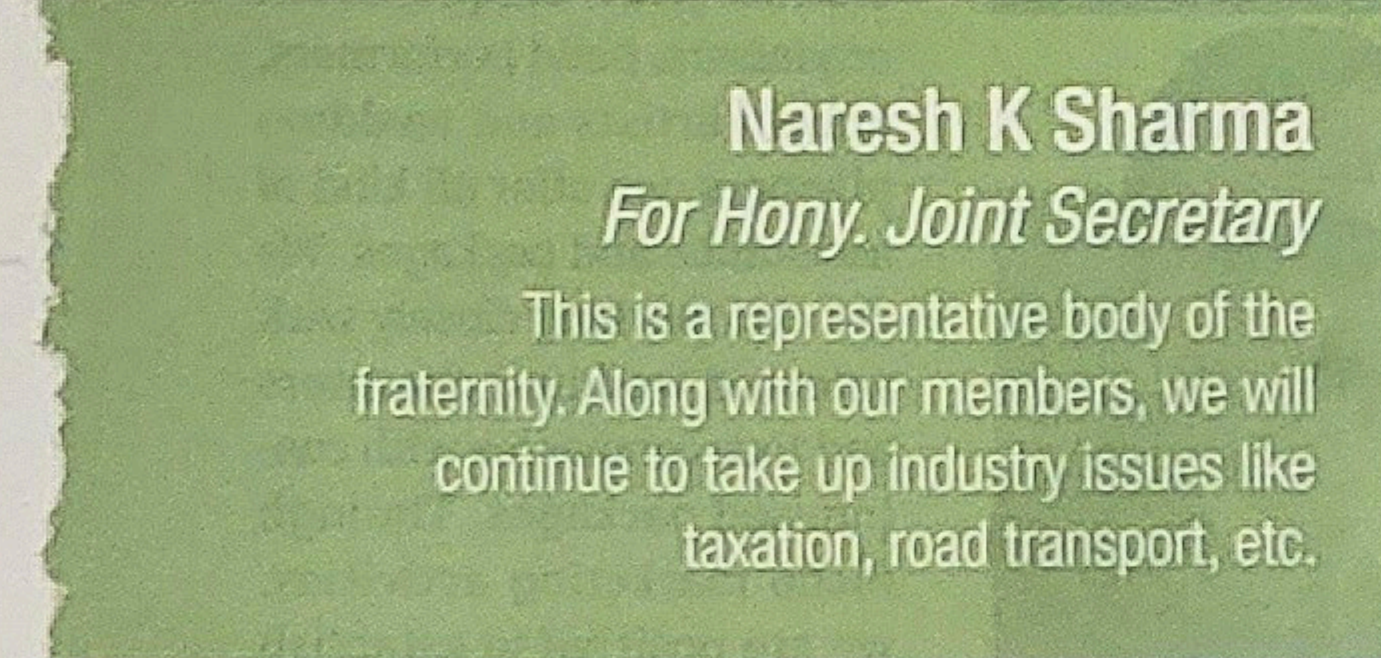

Jatinder S Taneja
For Hony. Treasurer

With team effort, I would like to bring IATO to a higher level by bringing in better dissemination of information to membership.

Atul Rai
For Hony. Secretary

The IATO team comprises agencies of all sizes and no individual can bypass the team. Interest of all will be protected.

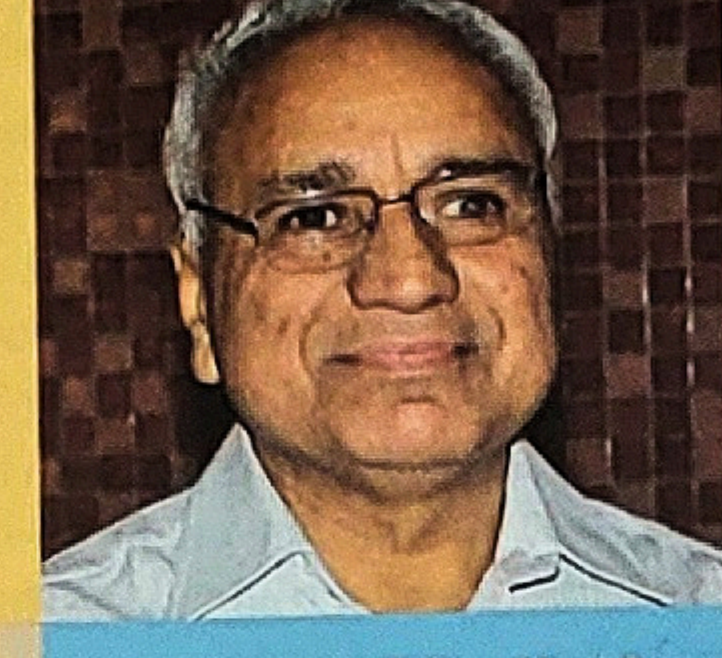

Naresh K Sharma
For Hony. Joint Secretary

This is a representative body of the fraternity. Along with our members, we will continue to take up industry issues like taxation, road transport, etc.

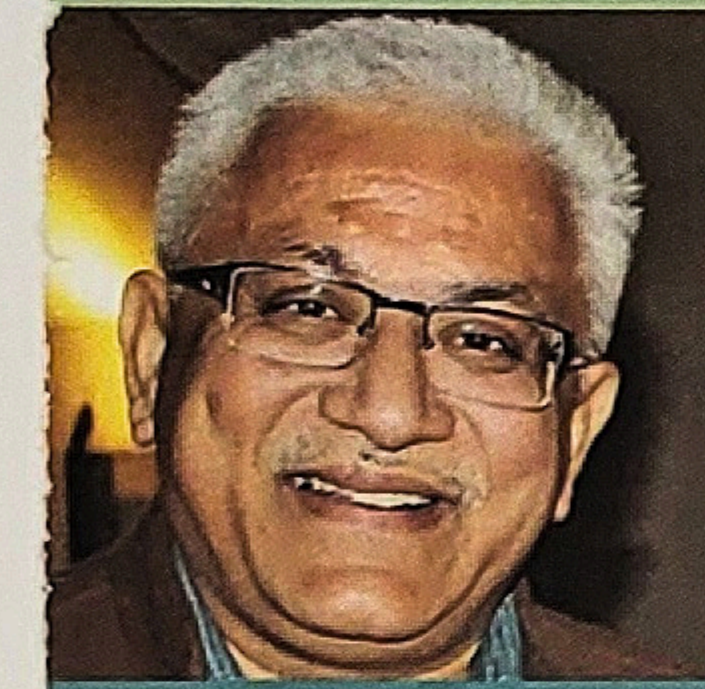

Harish Chopra
For Executive Committee, Members Active

Our objective is to create business-friendly and smooth operational environment for all our member operators. Our special focus will be on small and medium operators. I am also one of them.

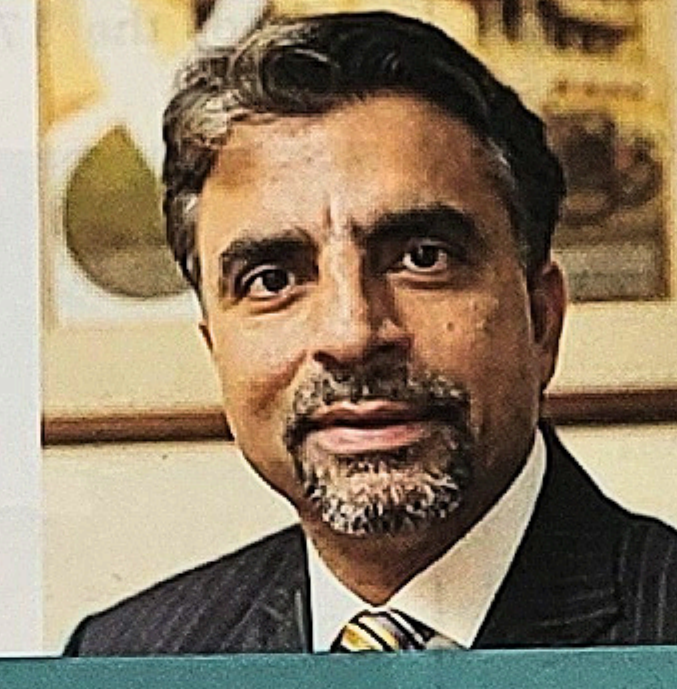

Vikram Madhok
For Executive Committee Members Active

The team for continuity has a lot of achievements to its credit. Agencies of all sizes have benefitted through IATO initiated roadshows.

Tony Marwah
For Executive Committee, Members Active

We will empower IATO to address all our members' aspirations and fears in the fast changing world that is inflicted by economic stress and adverse travel advisories.

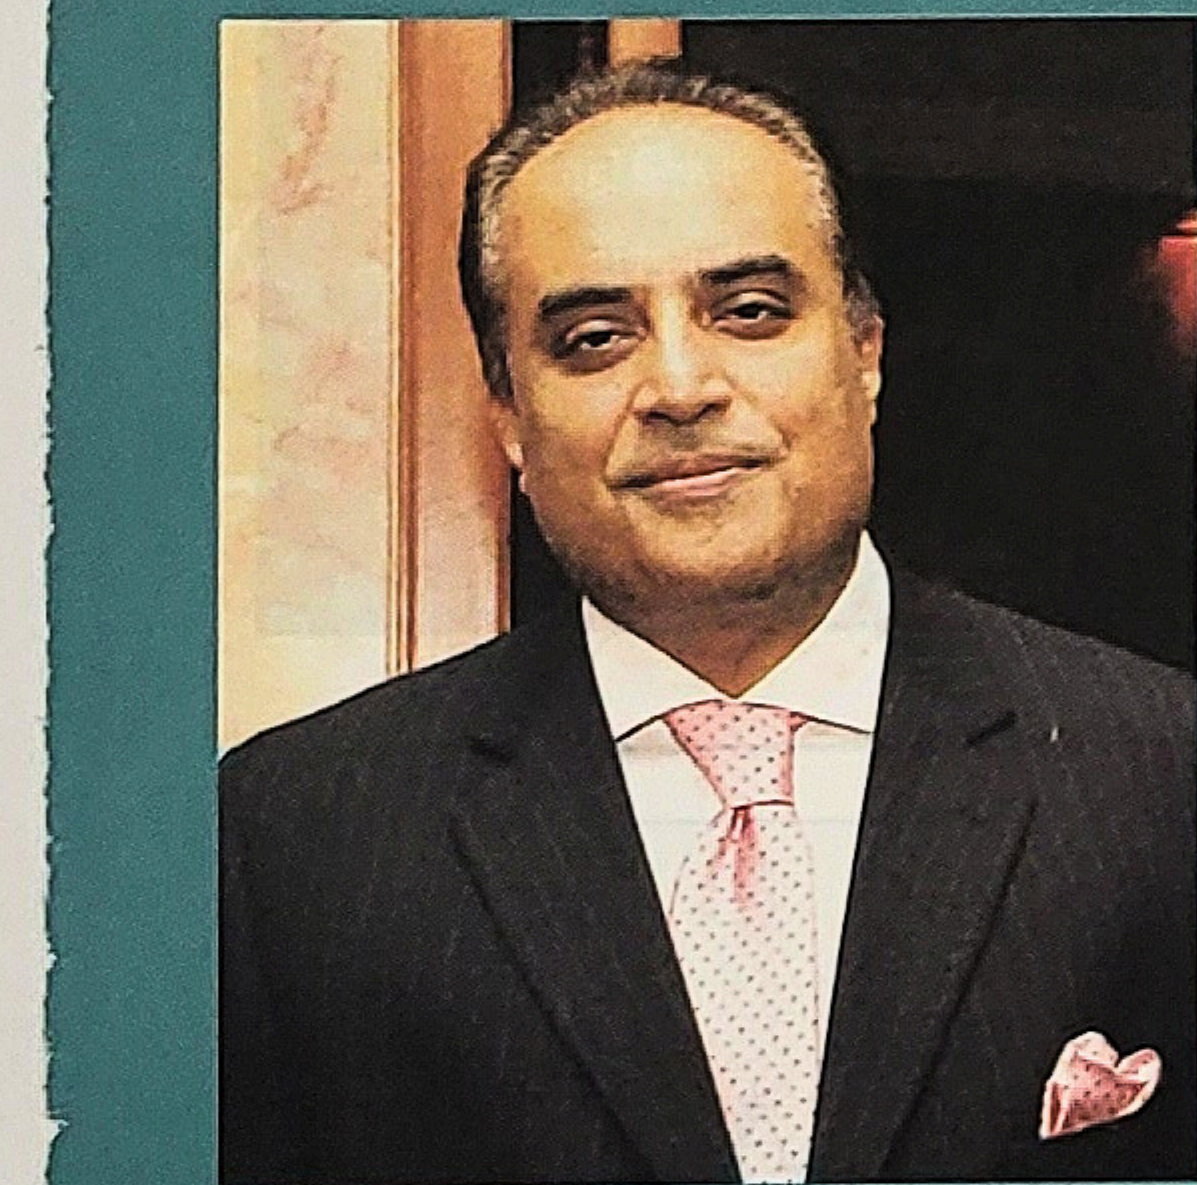

Arjun Sharma
For President

IATO has emerged as the voice of the industry in the last few years. Our vision is to collectively work towards the betterment of our members and the industry and increase the size of tourism business in India for all of us.

IATO team for Continuity, Togetherness and Progress

Led by Arjun Sharma, the team boasts of an incredible mix of talent, enterprise, experience and professionalism that seeks to continue with its commitment of taking IATO to the next level. The IATO 'Team for Continuity, Togetherness and Progress' seeks the members' mandate, as Sharma puts it, "growing the size of cake (tourism business) to be shared by all."

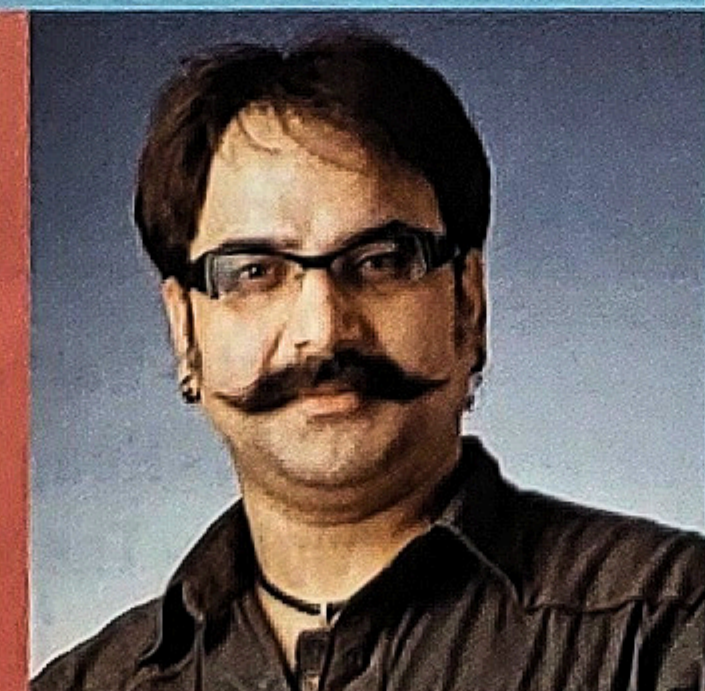

P. S. Duggal
For Executive Committee, Members Active

The present team's excellent performance lured me into joining hands with them and I will give my 100% to the team.

Sanjay Razdan
For Executive Committee, Members Active

We believe that many positive things have been accomplished by the present team in the last 4 years and that the new team will bring new impetus and we will be able to achieve more.

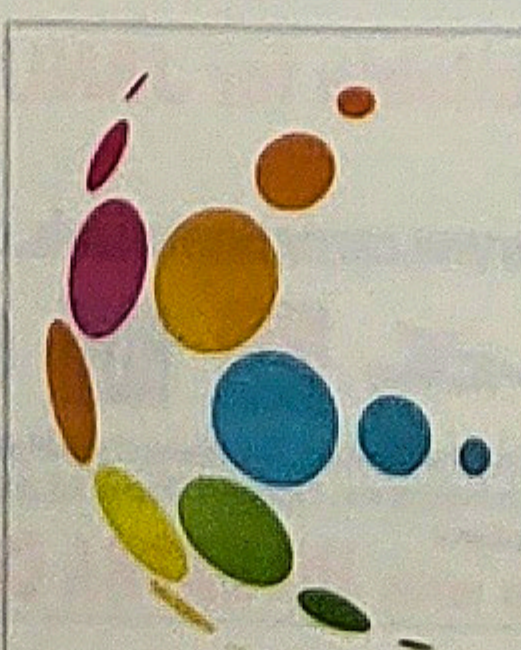

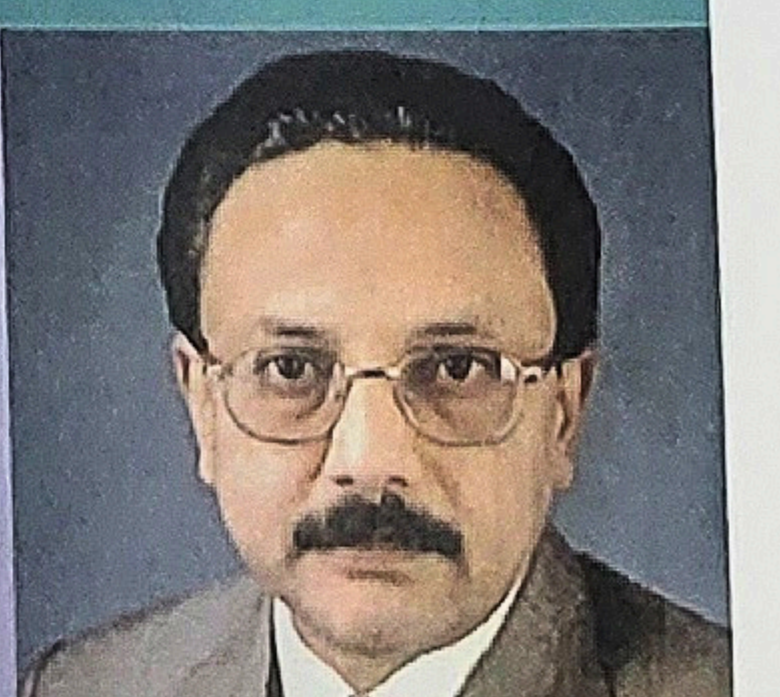

Sunil Sikka
For Executive Committee, Members Allied

This team has shown great commitment for the members and the industry. The leaders are capable, experienced and professionals.

Sunil C Gupta
For Executive Committee, Members Allied

IATO has 900 Allied members against 300 Active and therefore bring lot of strength to the association. I will seek to develop improved collaboration between Allied and Active members.
