

Vintage Car Drive

The recently held Vintage Car Drive at Select CITYWALK saw cars like Rolls Royce, Mercedes Benz, Hummer, Jaguar, Old Chevrolet, Ampala, 47 48 Mgtc. Vintage and classic car lovers of Delhi, in their endeavour to provide a forum for preserving and further promoting the automotive heritage of India, have formally launched Automotive Heritage Trust (AHT), which is a non-profit organisation. It has been formed to stimulate and support interest in the restoration, preservation and enjoyment of vintage and classic motorcars and two wheelers. AHT aims to encourage people with an interest in such cars and two wheelers on a world-wide basis. All members are united by a common interest: the engineering ideals and high standards of craftsmanship of the timeless machines. Cars belonging to AHT members have been displayed in AUTO EXPO 2002, 2004 and 2006 organised by Confederation of Indian Industry (CII).

These displays generated a substantial level of interest among visiting public for these timeless beauties. AHT has been showcasing widespread vintage and classic beauties with the help of associations like NDTA, Khan Market Traders Association annually for a couple of years and now with Select CITYWALK, Saket in New delhi
