Shaping Lives is an identity of Le Passage Travel Foundation that aims at molding the lives of the underprivileged children into a meaningful future. The Foundation is committed to engendering an environment that promotes sustainable development. Every initiative we undertake originates from our belief in empowering individuals and communities by creating skill sets that enhance their quality of life. Our major works are towards children and animals and the recently undertaken 'Rights of Fantasy' that was a unique experience for these children.

Shaping Lives is involved with the following NGO's:
