

Subhash Goyal & Team

makes a clean sweep

Battle Royale @ IATO

As over 100 members from the travel fraternity waited with bated breath, Praveen Chugh announced the results of the IATO elections, which created history by bringing together over 200 active members of the association to cast their vote. Subhash Goyal, after a small gap, once again took the reins of the association in his hands and won by a sweeping 183 votes as against Arjun Sharma who got 72 votes. Sarabjit Singh is the new Senior Vice President who won with 156 votes; Rajeev Kohli, the new Vice President won with 167 votes; Lally Mathews, the new Hony. Secretary won with 161 votes; Arun Anand, the new Hony Treasurer won with 165 votes and Lajpat Rai, the new Joint Secretary won with 161 votes. TTJ congratulates the new team and wishes them all the best to take the IATO forward.

Abuzz with activity, WTM 2011 experiences visitor growth & good response

World Travel Market (WTM) 2011 experienced an impressive 5 per cent increase in visitors compared to the previous event. More than 28,000 visitors (28,183) attended WTM 2011 compared to 26,908 that attended WTM 2010. The Incredible India pavilion was buzzing with activity as the Minister for Tourism, Shri Subodh Kant Sahay stayed the entire three days of the show, and the turnout too this year was impressive and encouraging with fresh companies and states were part of the exhibitor group. The India evening too was far grander compared to the previous year.
